CSE DEPT ACHIEVEMENTS

The Association of Scientists, Developers and Faculties hosts the Global Awards each and every across the world to identify and markup them into a higher level which could be visualized into a greater standards. This year after various levels of ascertaining of documentation, qualification eligibility and various factors. The narrowing was done in various levels bringing out the 13,812 nominations to 43. This year it happened at Pondicherry, India.

The Association of Scientists, Developers and Faculties (ASDF International), an International Organization fostering Research and Development hosts the Global Awards to recognize people from micro level to a greater macro level. This is extended across the Globe to choose the best out of all. The team headed by Dr. Arulmurugan Vadivelu, President of ASDF Global Awards 2015.